(c) It shall not contain inferences, ironical expressions of defamatory statements nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of persons except in their official or public capacity.
(d) It shall not refer to any matter which is under adjudication by a court of law; and
(e) It shall not raise substantially the same question as that raised and decided in the Executive Board during the six months preceding the date of the meeting at which it is to be moved unless prior consent of the Vice-President has been obtained.

(iii) Any member who has given notice of a resolution may in writing withdraw such resolution, at any time.

22. Emergency Meetings:—(a) An emergency meeting of the Executive Board shall be convened by the Director under the directions of the Vice-President if a requisition signed by not less than three members of the Executive Board is sent to the Director. The requisition for such meeting shall contain the terms of resolution or resolutions to be moved together with the name of the mover of each resolution. No business other than consideration of such resolution or resolutions shall be transacted at an emergency meeting provided that the Vice-President may bring any urgent business before such emergency meeting with or without notice.

(b) A notice specifying the place, date and time of the emergency meeting as approved by the Vice-President shall be sent by the Director to the members at least seven days before the date of a meeting under certificate of posting it sent by post or by telegram. The agenda shall be sent under certificate of posting if sent by post at least five days before the meeting.

23. Quorum:—Three members of the Executive Board including the presiding member shall form the quorum at any meeting to transact the business.

24. If the requisite number of members to form quorum is not present within thirty minutes from the time appointed for holding a meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned and the members shall meet on a date, time and place fixed by the Vice-President.

Provided that at least seven clear days notice is given to the members present and to each member who is not present at the meeting on the same or the following day by post, or telegram, or special messenger as the case may require. There shall be quorum for the adjourned meeting.

25. Presidency over a meeting:—The Vice-President shall preside over every meeting of the Executive Board.

26. Voting:—(a) All matters shall be decided by consensuses. In case of dispute, the decision shall be by majority of the votes cast by the members present. The Presiding member shall be entitled to vote on any question. If the votes be equally divided, the presiding member shall have a casting vote.

(b) On any matter being put to vote the manner in which the vote of the meeting shall be taken shall be left to the discretion and direction of the presiding member.

27. Recording of business:—(a) The Director shall act as Secretary to the Executive Board and the proceedings of the meeting shall be recorded by the Director.

(b) The views or opinions expressed by the members at the meetings shall not ordinarily be recorded in the proceedings. But if any member insists that his views or any point or matter be recorded, his views shall be recorded in the proceedings. The note of dissent, if any, given by any member shall also be recorded in the proceedings if that member so insists.

(c) The proceedings of the meetings of the Executive Board shall be circulated to all members. If no objection is taken by any member who was present at the meeting to the correctness of the proceedings within seven days of the sending of the proceedings, they shall be deemed to be correct. If objection be taken within the time aforesaid, a letter shall be sent to the Director definitely specifying the points which require correction in the proceedings. The validity or otherwise of objections, if any, received from the members present at the meeting shall be decided by the Vice-President of the Institute whose decision shall be final.

28. Transaction of business by circulation of papers:—(a) Any business which may be necessary for the Executive Board to transact may, if the Vice-President so directs, or is considered urgent by the Director, be dealt with by circulation of papers under registered cover among all members at their usual addresses.

(b) When any business is so referred to the members by circulation, a period of not less than ten clear days shall be allowed for the receipt of replies from the members, such period to be counted from the date on which the notice of business is issued.

Provided that if no reply is received within the stipulated period from any member, the resolution so circulated shall be deemed to have been approved by the member concerned.
(c) If a resolution is circulated, the results of circulation shall be communicated to all the members.
