Similarly, the second candidate to be called will be the top ranker among ST candidates. Further, the third candidate to be called will be the top ranker among OC candidates (Open category: irrespective of social status) and so on. As the counselling proceeds, if a subject selected by a candidate is not available by virtue of getting filled up before, she will be allotted a subject of her second choice. The other restriction the candidate will have while selecting a particular subject is the availability of seat within the local university area she belongs to. In case it is not available the candidate will be given her next choice where a seat is available within the university area she belongs to.
